

Subject: : Hatch and Entomology Forum

Topic: : Big Stoneflies in September

Big Stoneflies in September

Author: : troutbert

Date: : 2012/9/10 12:33:48

URL:

Has anyone else been seeing big stoneflies lately?

Yesterday I fished a small tributary to Cedar Run. At a bridge on Cedar Run I was a bunch of big clumsy insects flying around, grabbed one, and it was a big adult stonefly, which looked very much like the Perlid stoneflies that you commonly see around the beginning of June. About an 1 1/4 inches long (rough estimate), with yellow bodies.