I have a folding one and I used it a couple of times. I don't use it anymore because when I did slip it didn't help in anyway other than kept me from using that hand to catch my balance. With that said.... We must all be reminded that fall season is upon us and cold water can kill. Please be careful of your surroundings and current flows. Bring along a pack with some extra clothes sealed in a plastic bag.

And as in - I believe the second Indiana Jones movie "Let it go Junior" when the goblet was slightly beyond reach. In our case it is that rise from a trout that may be to just an inch too far.
