Steno - I don't get what you want hear. You as for opinions and you seem pissed at Maurice for giving one. My opinion is you should never fish over trout seeking refuge. If you can protect this area in some way and feel the need ... then do it or at least try. If you want to keep the place a secret then don't talk about it. I'm with Maurice in that you can't have it all, if it's a refuge for 3 or 4 months I wouldn't fish it.
