Fallfish are a blast on the fly rod. I have had a lot of fun this summer catching fallfish while I was fishing for SMB on various streams.

This one was one of my biggest fallfish of the year. He smashed a size 4 deep Clouser minnow and I estimated that he was about 16" long. There is a lot of fight in these fish, I would put them up against many of the targeted species (pound per pound or inch per inch).
