

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Hoses in creeks

Re: Hoses in creeks

Author: : FarmerDave

Date: : 2012/9/19 7:58:54

URL:

Quote:

pwk5017 wrote:

Certainly, it seems almost negligible when you perform the calculation over 24 hours (like a hose for a cabin would), but removing 1336.89 cubic feet of water from a stream in an hour or two for commercial purposes is the scenario I was talking about.

Truth is, most pools (vast majority) are filled from public water systems which have permits to draw WAY more than that.

See previous.