Barbless - I agree - it's no stockie. Photo doesn't do justice to the pretty colors of the little guy.

GathyG - That was the first fish I caught on the rod I just purchased from you. We're headed to the Lack tomorrow morning. Keep your eyes peeled.

Maurice - Lucky hat was home on the table. (Didn't want to take the time to transfer the license.) It will get it's trial run tomorrow morning. 😊

Shane - I only have one close to that size. It was a little rainbow that came flying out of the riffles below the bridge at the Little Lehigh.
