As much as I hate to say this and some wil disagree.. A 250 dollar rod is by far diiferent form a 600 dollar stick. You can not compare a TLS to a T3 or a Sage FLI to a XP(z axis) there is no way its all about materials . IF any one cares to discuss scrim and such thats fine . Bottom line is a high end stick will cast farther with ease , be precise and much lighter . . A the end of the day its how much time you spend onthe water .. I still say check online for closeouts get the best rod you can you wont regret it Sorry if this hurts so feelings .. just my 2 cents
