

Subject: : Tips and Tricks

Topic: : Terrestrials

Re: Terrestrials

Author: : afishinado

Date: : 2012/10/3 8:18:30

URL:

Quote:

boychick wrote:

Are terrestrials still working for tout this late in the fall?

No doubt. All kind of bugs are usually around until the first hard frost, and even with that, the fish will still hit the artificials for a few weeks after most of the naturals disappear.

Don't forget about flying ants for trout. In Sept into Oct they hatch like crazy in some places. You can tie or buy them with wings, but wingless ants seem to work okay too.