I like this forum because there is alot of garbage out on the market. And for a beginner to learn to appreciate the art of flyfishing without spending a few days wages - they now have a couple of ideas and what to look for in a flyrod and gear just from reading this forum.

My Renegade 5/6wt fly rod. My daughter broke the tip one day and I replaced the tip and it works fine. It was an 8'6" and now it's a 8'2". I may have paid $30.00 for it about 5 years ago at Walmart. Bought a Shakespear same timeframe...It was too heavy to use more than 20 casts - so I used it for a while as a walking stick.

2 thumbs up!
