There are a lot of good spots near AC. That where I do a bulk of my striper fishing. It's more bait fishing but there are some good spots to toss a fly in. The inlet between AC and brig is good. A few other spots in longport from the beaches. But north jersey is more fly fishing area for jersey IMO.

There is a chill in the air. Time to start hitting the beach. Best time of year when you have to wear waders and a hoodie. No more meatheads at the beach and you get to duke it out with someone from New York. I love the fall run.
