There are a lot of good spots near AC. That where I do a bulk of my striper fishing. It's more bait fishing but the are some good spots to toss a fly it. The inlet between AC and brig is good. A few other spots in longport from the beaches. But north jersey if more fly fishing area for jersey IMO.

These is a chill in the air. Time to start hitting the beach. Best time of year when you have to where waders and a hoodie. No more meatheads at the beach and you get to duke it out with someone from new York. I love the fall run.
