Thanks again for the wing place advice... I have seen the Riverwalk, which looks like a large log cabin, from 476 and wondered about it but never stopped ... I only met up with the brookie guys and hit the road before the Lehigh fishing set was in... but wound up at the riverwalk bar next to some people from Philly who have a cabin near albrightsville.. they showed me pictures of rattlers on their street. Good to keep the garage door closed I guess.
