Some of Dwight's inclusions really surprised me. My brother in law owns a small farm in Sullivan County and has a small stream running through the property. Dwight actually listed the stream and what he found there. He said access was an issue 'cause of posted land....but access wasn't an issue for me 'cause of being of kin to one of the land posters! My brother in law, who's not a fly fisherman (or any kind of fisherman) was pretty excited that "his" stream was in there.
