Grossly offtopic, but many States have "official" languages:

One of America's most noble acts is that we've never declared one, its one of the positive things about America that I would think those who are staunchly conservative and profess to uphold everything this Nation stands for would embrace, an open willingness to take you in and give you a home.

-shrug-

Anyways, I'm now off topic for (lovingly) flippant responses to Afish, so we're gonna have to steer this ship back in the right direction or I'm afraid I cannot continue to add to it.
