I'm lucky in the sense that we have family up there and I can stay for free. It's in Mexico, but only a 15 min drive to Pulaski.

I'm over Salmon fishing. The crowds of rude inconsiderate assholes, and the smell of rotting salmon are too much for me anymore. I'm planning on going up for chrome a few times from Late november into March. Less people, fish that will actually take a fly, no snaggers, etc.
