

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Corbett forces resignation of parks director

Re: Corbett forces resignation of parks director

Author: : greenghost

Date: : 2012/10/20 10:32:19

URL:

Most alarming to me is the possibility of allowing mining within the boundaries of Laurel Ridge State Park. I was just fishing some headwater brookie streams in that area two weeks ago. That region has been a stronghold against point and nonpoint source pollution in southwestern PA!!! The streams I fished were gems. Not sure how deep into the park the mine will go but the environment will most likely be threatened. Damit!