I'm not familiar with the LL, but Valley for me is right on the dividing line between whether I use my 7'0 or my 8'0. (I don't own a 7'6). The Park section I use the 8'0, and upstream areas the 7'0.

If you're looking to do both streams like Valley and little Brookie runs with one rod, I think 7'6 is about spot on and gives the best balance for both.
