

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Woodcock Creek, Crawford County

Re: Woodcock Creek, Crawford County

Author: : midgeman

Date: : 2012/10/22 16:16:11

URL:

I fished there myself and it was packed with anglers. Now is the time to start exploring tribs to the Allegheny below Kinzu Dam for wild browns making there spawning runs. You should be willing to start at the mouths and cover at least 3 miles in an outing. This means running and gunning. You will be rewarded for the distance you cover. The walk back is the only bad part.