You will never make everybody happy, so don't even worry about it.

Why I like stream reports;

-I learn about streams in other parts of the state. This is not kiss and tell. Laurel Hill is not a secret. But to some one from the Poconoes it is a foreign body of water and a stream report may prompt them to stop by the boy scout section if they are ever in South West PA.

-I love hearing about big fish and big fish days. I remember one from Joe Ike where he caught a 2foot holdover in a piece of water I drive over. It confirms the hope that on my next outing I could have a big fish or a big fish day and in potentially marginal water.
