I did the canyon.

Only I did it Jake on a bender style, in a canoe, in below freezing temps, with freezing rain after a birthday drinking binge. Plan was to canoe all the way down and ride my bike back up.

At the end of day one, I arrived at Tiadghton to see my buddy standing there with a big bottle of Jack to accompany my Jim. Woke up next morning and my socks and rod case were frosted next to the spent fire. Needless to say I did much less fishing then planned. Did manage a few brookies from Asaph and I think two browns from Slate.

I believe my relationship with alcohol has come to an end.
