

Subject: : Tips and Tricks

Topic: : SR in Mid November

SR in Mid November

Author: : Love2fish

Date: : 2012/10/28 15:37:09

URL:

I have my first trip to the SR planned for mid November and am planning on tying up some WB, egg sucking leeches, copper johns, pince nymphs, egg patterns but was wondering if there should be some flesh flies with all the salmon that have run the river. Any other flies that you would consider "must haves" would be helpful also. This will be true fly fishing no chunk and dunk.