The reason they do not get better photos and the reason that I will never submit my photos is that the rules are ridiculous. They want you to give up all rights to your photo in exchange for a patch and certificate IF you win. If you don't win they still get all rights to your image!

The Pennsylvania Fish & Boat Commission shall have the right to use all submissions for any purpose in the future without compensation. All submissions become the property of the Pennsylvania Fish & Boat Commission and will not be returned.
