Sorry I will miss you guys coming up to my area this year. I will be at bear camp from thursday till wed. Had a blast fishing with you guys the last two years. If anyone needs any tips just shoot me a pm im glad to help. Fishing has been pretty good got out sunday for awhile had a few hook ups and seen alot of fish caught. Elk is back down after the 7 days of rain we had. Was looking pretty clear today when I left work. Been lots of guys out the last few days but the fish are spread out. So if ya put a little foot work in you can get away from the crowds and still find some fish. Good luck and have fun and most of all stay safe. I will keep ya posted on stream conditions next week till I leave for camp then im off the grid.
