Hey all,

I am headed to Erie for the rest of the week for business. I am looking to do some fly fishing for Steelhead. While an experienced angler and trout fisherman, I have never fished for Steelhead and never fished any of the Erie tribs.

I am looking for some advice for a mid week (Wed. and Thursday) fishing excursion. I am just looking to get on a few fish. Im more of a quality versus quantity guy and Im hoping to avoid the major crowds by going mid week.

Assuming I have the right gear for the purposes of this discussion any advice is appreciated. Where to go, park, explore, time to go during the day, etc. Not looking for secret spots, fly, or equipment advice, just looking for some get started info....

Thanks,

EJ
