Just wanted to say thanks to the guys that PM'd me. The trip was a lot of success. Hooked 10 fish, landed 2 and took a pic of the bigger one. Definitely a novice on getting these bruisers to the net.

Im definitely hooked on this. What an experience landing a fish this big on a fly rod. I truly enjoyed myself, the weather was great, water was low and clear with not a ton of fish, but I easily entertained myself and was able to sight fish in the runs and riffles to the fish I hooked. I didnt even mind the crowds, which were respectful. All in all a great first experience.
