gonan be in cedar key(no, it's not in the keys,)

(<http://www.cedarkey.org/>) after thanksgiving, taking a couple fly rods, but not sure what kinda flies I should take. no fly shops in the area, so I'll have to stop somewhere on the way down and pick some up. there are some outfitter/guide services, but they seem to cater to the spinning crowd. I'm gonna stop and chat with some of them anyways when I get down there. I'll also be in central florida, ocala nat forest for a couple days, bass water, but I have that covered, it's the saltwater stuff that I'm clueless about. and yes, I'll be rockin some vintage 8wt tackle.
