if you fish a lot in the winter, especially for steel, which could expose you to weather in the 20's, invest the 100 dollars in the late spring for the following and never be cold again.

patagonia webspecials in May/June

this ^ should be your first layer

2.) a wool overshirt

3.) http://www.patagonia.com/us/product/m ... k-baselayer?p=43655-0-309

4.) wading jacket

I fish w. those 3 layers under my wading jacket, am mobile, and very, very warm. Just be sure to hydrate a lot because the capilene, like underarmour, will wicker and pull a lot of moisture out of your body.
