I do have an extra lace but my stitching is also ripping. .

I have the Bean version (Rivershed?), and my "laces" are fine, but the right boot has basically fallen apart after less than a year.

The little mesh grommets popped out. the stitching ripped, and its generally in rough shape. The left side? 100%.

FWIW, I bought from Bean with the express reason that I can walk back in and receive a new pair. I intend to do so.
