If you have not quit tying yet check out the we site for Norm Zeiglers shop on Sanibel Island. He created a great fly he calls Norm's Crystal Schminnow. Killer fly in the surf on Florida's SW Coast.

The Schminnow is really just a white crystal bugger...add mono eyes and clip the tail...Zeigler claims this help the marabou flair and not matte on itself. The key to this fly is that its not weighted so you can cast it 2' in front of a snook and the splash won't spook it.

I'm trying to get to Sanibel one of these days...might head over there if on a trip down there and the east coast is blown out...

Maybe Norm will be around to autograph his book...
