Good stuff as usual gents and much appreciated to the guys in this thread and the PM's.

Lots of stuff to research and I'm gonna have to learn how to read the maps but me thinks I'll be OK! 😊 Chaz, once my foot heals I might have to take you and other invites up.

What is the season for brookie fishing .. spring to late fall?

What other things should I be aware of as not to harm the fish like spawning season and such (excluding not fishing on private land unless permission)?

Also, seen a lot of brookie discussion on "redds" .. what does this mean?
