

Subject: : Beginner Forum

Topic: : Finding Brookie Streams ..

Re: Finding Brookie Streams ..

Author: : geebee

Date: : 2012/11/28 19:02:19

URL:

you can look at the class a streams on google maps terrain and see where folds in the hillside / mountainside are.

4/5 times there is a a brook there - even if there is no blue line on the map.

ponds in higher elevations than local streams are also a good indicator that a brook might be around somewhere.

not knowing whether these are perennial streams or dried beds with a few tiny pools, is part of the fun.