Another in a similar or parallel vein: "Bodines, or Camping on the Lycoming" by Thad UpdeGraf. A fine Victorian frolic along the waters of the Lycoming Creek in NCPA. It could be subtitled: How to Have a Grand Time with your Pals while Camping Along a Trout Stream." The author was a brilliant physician and renaissance man who highly valued his annual June camp-out fishing trips. This one is also on permanent night-stand duty. And, it is in print.
