I wanted to do a little free give away to the board this Christmas. You guys have been the inspiration to my business and also a big reason why I'm so addicted to fly fishing. I've met a ton of you and speak with many on the board frequently.

So here's the deal. Just simply make a post on this thread and you'll be entered for a $25 Risen Fly Gift credit. This will apply to any purchases with Risen Fly. It can be transferred to another member but must be used by March 10th.

I will pick a winner on December 10th, so any posts up until the winner is announced will be entered. 1 entry per person (screen name). This gives you plenty of time to use the credit and get a gift for Christmas.

Hope everyone has a very Merry Christmas!

Ryan
