

Subject: : Tips and Tricks

Topic: : Splite Bamboo blanks

Re: Splite Bamboo blanks

Author: : lv2nymph

Date: : 2012/12/5 19:37:43

URL:

Long story short, I ran into Pat purdy(wife of Albert Purdy) from Cold Spring NY. at the outlets in Pa. a long time ago, we started talking flyfishing, she informs me that her husband who had passed god rest his soul has all this fly fishing/tying stuff in the bsmt. and she don't know what to do with it. Naturally I came up with an idea. About three months later I'm at Pats house She tells me anything he had open I could have, And everything else 40-60% off!!!!!! I go down stairs to find a fly shop a large flyshop There were pics of Albert and all the old school catskill guys at his tying table drinking and tying it was so cool, for the longest time I just sat there and daydreamed. I spent alot of money that weekend so the book was very cheap. I don't know how famous Albert was but he hung with some big time people. Pat and I became good friends and several more trips after happened. Her wedding present to me was Al's canoe which I still use today. Wonderful woman. All I expect from you is the fact that it will help you with your rod, and a pic when you're done I hope it helps you. Jack