since my local shop doesn't carry them I had to search for them online. wflies has them. 8.00 for 20. I think I got some from an ebay store 30 of them for 4.50 from hardydeluxe.

The 2 mm is more than large enough for end to end connections. If you want to use them tie off droppers, I'd recommend the 2.5 mm.

3 mm are quite large.

I use the swivels for streamers and large heavy rigs. Can't use them for dries like you can tippet rings
