I didn't get cold, though I get cold a lot faster than I used to and is one of the many reasons that deer hunting is becoming an irrelevant activity for me. Anyhow, under my old denim jacket I wore an old hooded gray sweatshirt, which was enough to keep me warm as I fished this afternoon, which was over 40 degrees here. I kept the hood up till I walked back to my truck after fishing. It was actually a pretty nice afternoon, and the trout didn't care that I also wore my old reliable fishing vest as well.
