

Subject: : Tips and Tricks

Topic: : Swinging for Pennsylvania Steelhead.

Re: Swinging for Pennsylvania Steelhead.

Author: : dano

Date: : 2012/12/14 13:23:09

URL:

I used smaller neutral colored flies swung slow as the water I was fishing was on the clear side and temping out at 35 degrees.

On the last run of the day, I decided to throw something opposite of what I had always been taught. It was a desperation shot in the dark.

Tomorrow, I try the fly again as the River is finally fishable with about 6-8" of visibility and about a foot higher since I was there last.