I have the same pair of sun glasses I bought for fishing 25 yrs ago. They're called Action Optics by Smith. They are god ugly, big and unsightly(look like somebody from the mafia in them). But, you can read a book on the stream bottom. They've been replaced twice by the company for free. I keep looking at the new sleek cool shaped glasses ,then I'm on the stream again and remember why I've never bought different ones.
