So yeah a bump to the top, looks like the sunday before christmas will i'll be out and if anyone wants to go, either looking to take out the 3wt for smaller water, or my 12' switch/spey, if the water temps are decent on the bigger water; lehigh, delaware, whatever i'm open to all suggestions.

and wharfrat if your still gonna be on the little lehigh, i'm absolutely cool with that too.
