I just got a pair of prescription polarized glasses for Christmas. Haven't had the chance to fish them yet, but my buddy Andrew swears by these glasses. Mine look great out of the box right now. They were only about $125 delivered when I ordered them at the end of November.

I got the Tidal model.

Thanks for the link, Albie. I've been looking for a pair of Rx sunglasses for fishing at a reasonable price. Let me know if they work well for you.

I Googled up some info on how to read an eyeglass prescription to enter into the site above.
