I apologize , i guess i THOUGHT i read the whole thing but NOT. Anyhow the similarities are so close that i would think it would pop up alot more than it did in Chaz's post its all public record on how things progressed and the final outcome is there in detail , do any of you folks think our administration will do anything innovative or out of the box or do you think they will follow Big Spring like a textbook? Once again i'm sorry for missin that post Chaz.
