Dang this sounds SWEET!!!!!!!!!! I would LOVE to do something like this in the future. That weekend I am working and have a rescheduled family Christmas in the afternoon, but please let me know if something like this will pop up again.

Speaking of fishing, if any of you Lehigh area guys are up for fishing the weekend of the 22nd, let me know! I have a 5 day weekend that weekend and I'm lookin' for some fishing fun. I've been wanting to get up there and fish w/ you old timers.
