Here is a list I've compiled of everybody (that could possibly make it) so far:

Heritage Angler - Mr. Schaffer

SBecker

outsider

Foxgap

marcq

martin0206

PhilC

blueheron

The club members that are most likely going to show up are:

Mr. Schaffer (our advisor, but he wants to learn more!) He has some basic stuff, but doesn't really know too much when it comes to actual fishing. He won't be wading. I've already talked to Ed and you guys will probably fish together.

Johnny Miller (wading status unknown) He has fished before and from what I tell he is decent. He certainly knows fundamental techniques.

Tyler LaGreca (not wading, he has size 16 feet and can't find waders) He has had a little tiny bit of background on Fly Fishing but not a ton.

Chris DeVilliers (wading status unknown) It seems he kind of knows what's going on. Not sure how much on-stream time he has.

Brandon Haraldson He's a complete beginner. No previous experience.

Gaeron Friedrichs (that's me) If I don't go fishing with anybody, that's perfectly fine. I'm going to tinker around with comp/euro stuff anyway so it may be painstaking for whoever I go with. But we'll see!

Club members that are maybe's:

Kristin DeVilliers

Colin Irwin

If you guys think your personality or fishing type/instruction type matches one of these kids best put it in a comment and we'll pair you up! Also, as far as donations of anything goes, feel free to PM me and we will discuss it! Thanks everyone!
