Yeah, I killed blues that week too.

I will have to double check, but we just booked a place for the 4th or the 10th. I wanna say its the 10th. Last time we did a charter, I was so damn sick. Caught a ton of chicken dolphin fish(such an awesome tasting fish), but I was constantly puking over the side and reeling a fish in. If I went this time, I need the patch behind the ear or something. I think our charter was pretty reasonable. Full day, boat to ourselves(30'+ boat with an awesome flat platform in the front, great for fly casting) and I think it was $450 or something. 5 people comfortably fit and fished.
