This should be fun, really looking forward to it. This is the first time I will make an attempt to really help someone while fishing but you guys on the board have mentored me enough that I think I know what I'm doing (sometimes) enough to help. The weather looks like it will be really nice too. I will be there by 9:30 ready to go.

Good thinking Jeff. Time to "Pay it Forward". Good luck and have fun.
