Well I can see that the spirit of this site has been totally trashed by self centered Jerks. Becker if that's the best you can do, you shouldn't bother to even post.

Hooked, I haven't been there for years, so I can't help much, but try the Dougleston Section. I was only there once and I don't remember how to get there. If you ask anyone at the fly shops they'll be more help than some of the folks on this site.

If the best you can do is suggest that someone go pay $50 to fish private water in what would be undoubtedly the most unproductive section of the river in the middle of January, maybe you shouldn't bother to even post.

Shane is 100% with the map and Boyer is 100% with All Season Sports (ASS).
