I read Eastern Fly Fishing and The Drake. I subscribe to EFF and buy The Drake at the bookstore. EFF is a good all-around read and they publish 3 versions of each issue based on location North East, South East, and Midwest. You'll get the version that you live in, but you can access the others online if you're a subscriber. It's like a 3 for 1 deal. The Drake has good articles and amazing pictures, it is not much of a "how to" or "location guide" type magazine which is a nice change of pace.
