You need special permits to drive on McLean Rd. I've never fished Manada, but I hunted the Gap for quite a few years. The regulations tend to change from year to year. I don't know what they are now.

McLean Road takes you through all of the artillery ranges and dumps you out at Cold Springs Road. If you're heading east the impact area is to your left.

It's a "you really shouldn't even think about walking here area."
