Hey there, glad you guys like the work!

With regards to amount of footage, I don't know exactly how much, but there are hundreds of clips taken throughout a year and they typically range from 2-10 minutes each. So, if there are 300 clips for the year at an average of probably 4minutes, then maybe 20-25 hours of footage to make a 20min of output. Maybe a tad more?
