

Subject: : Print, Video, Audio Discussions

Topic: : "A River runs through it"

Re: "A River runs through it"

Author: : Flyfishmedic732

Date: : 2013/1/20 8:20:07

URL:

I think Ill throw my 2 cents here LOL

I have never read the book but definitely WANT to. I will have to say that this movie is one of my favorite movies out there. To me, this movie is not only about FF, but also Norman Mcleans life. I always took as a biography of sorts. Yeah the fishing is definitely staged, the backdrops are awesome. To see how 2 young boys started the lifestyle of FF at very young ages and never forgot their roots and see one river as "their Home" reminds me of what life is supposed to be like. How simple it is and how families can be boinded by one certain thing. I love FF, I started when I was in my 20s. Not because of the movie, but because my father taught me a new way to fish. I find myself wishing I was out on the river when I watch it. If this movie did in fact bring "yuppies" to the stream, the so be it, More people enjoying our sport. Maybe a few stayed, maybe a few didnt. Does it really matter? IMHO no it doesnt. The movie was great in my mind, and I cant wait to read the book as I am sure it is just as great if not better.